<sup>1</sup>When Jesus rode into Jerusalem he came in amongst shouts familiar to all who have attended a Catholic Mass: “ _____ ”.

<sup>2</sup>Even though it is quite famous today, the Last Supper painting by _____ isn't all that accurate.

<sup>3</sup>The first Jewish Passover was eaten _____ years before the time of Christ and it was eaten standing up with staff in hand as the Hebrews were prepared to escape from Egypt. Their lives had been spared by painting the _____ on the doorframes of their homes... But what about the meat? They _____ it.

<sup>4</sup>When Jesus broke the bread he clearly said, “ _____ ”, not ‘This represents or symbolizes my body’.

<sup>5</sup>At the beginning of time mankind brought sin and death into the world when they gave into Satan's temptation in the Garden of _____. Now Jesus begins the conquering of sin and death when he successfully fights against Satan's temptations in another garden, the Garden of _____.

<sup>6</sup>During the agony in the garden, Jesus prays, “Father, if possible, take this cup away from me. But _____ ”.

<sup>7</sup>It was a Jewish law that the Passover lamb had to be without blemish and faultless. It had to be a perfect little lamb. <sup>8</sup>The flogging (aka scourging) of Jesus fulfilled the prophecy of Isaiah 53:5: “He was wounded for our transgressions and by his _____ we are _____ ”.

<sup>9</sup>Although you could die from thirst, shock, loss of blood, and heart failure, the most common cause of death from crucifixion was _____ (aka suffocation).

<sup>10</sup>The physical pain was probably the least of our Lord's agony. We will never comprehend the _____ and psychological suffering that he experienced... The holy Son of God took upon himself all the vile _____ of the world. He became sin for us.”
