SAINTS Q&A

(See Saints Q&A In-Class Notes Keynote and corresponding notes)

You should...

1. Know the information from the Saints Q&A In-Class notes and Keynote, especially:
  - a. What a saint is
  - b. About how many officially named saints there are and why there are so many more in Heaven that aren't officially named
  - c. How the early Church declared saints
  - d. Know the 4 titles (in order) that one is given on their way to being labeled a "saint"
  - e. Be able to give a summary of the canonization process, including:
    - Investigation of person's life, local bishop to Vatican and pope involvement, people asking for person's prayers, first and second miracles needed to be called "blessed" and "saint".
    - i. *Note: While it would be impressive if you had every little detail of this process memorized, I am mostly concerned with you being able to give an accurate summary of the general process that occurs when declaring someone a saint.
  - f. How to explain that Catholics do NOT worship saints
  - g. Why we have patron saints
  - h. What 1st, 2nd, and 3rd class relics are
  - i. The significance of the catacombs and their connection with saint relics in Catholic altars today
  - j. Which saint relics are in OLG's altar
  - k. The names of the cool (and sometimes weird) miracles that happen to some of the saints
  - l. What a halo is and what it is supposed to symbolize

Don't forget to utilize your learning styles!

BIG-TIME SAINTS

You should...

1. Be able to give a brief outline/summary of the lives of each of the 2 main saints we have studied together thus far:
  - a. John Vianney
    - i. Know the basic details from the life of John Vianney that we studied (see Saints in the OLG Altar In-Class Notes Keynote and corresponding notes)
  - b. Maria Goretti
    - i. Know the basic details from the life of Maria Goretti that we studied (see Saints in the OLG Altar In-Class Notes Keynote and corresponding notes)
