

The Meaning of the Marriage Vows

Catholic wedding vows promise that one's love will always be:

The infographic is a large, stylized letter 'T' shape, divided into four main sections corresponding to the vows: Free, Total, Faithful, and Fruitful. Each section contains text, icons, and small images.

- Free: Includes the heading 'ACTIVITY', 'Key Terms', and 'Free, Total, Faithful, Fruitful Chapter 7'. It features a small image of a person with arms raised.
- Total: Includes the heading 'Bridging the Gap', 'To the Core', and 'Catholicism Could Not'. It features a small image of wedding rings.
- Faithful: Includes the heading 'Fruitful' and 'Fruitful'. It features a small image of a fruit basket.
- Fruitful: Includes the heading 'Fruitful' and 'Fruitful'. It features a small image of a person's face.

At the bottom of the 'T' shape, the words 'Free', 'Total', 'Faithful', and 'Fruitful' are written in a large, handwritten-style font.

#1 FREE

I'm not being forced or pressured to marry by anyone or anything.

#2

TOTAL

I understand that marriage is not a 50 / 50 contract,
but a 100 / 100 covenant.

#3

FAITHFUL

I'm committed to loving my spouse (and no one else!).

I will be faithful with my body, mind, and heart.

#4 FRUITFUL

I am open to the gift of children.

MARRIAGE MIRRORS THE TRINITY

Holy Spirit

Children

Father

Son

Husband

Wife