

THE REFORMATION

Began in 1517 AD

First & Last Name: _____

Class: _____ Today's date: _____

Saint of the Day: _____

(Pray for me!)

The names of some Protestant churches (denominations) and when they began:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____

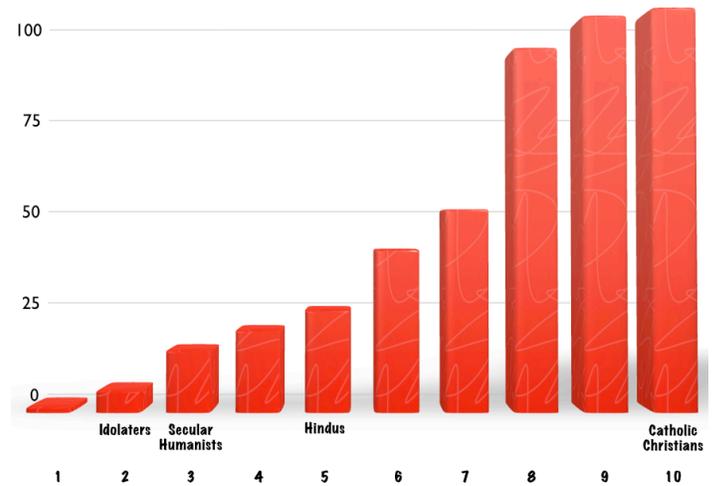

Names of some Protestant churches (denominations)

Theological Similarities:

*NOTE: These numbers are in no way scientific. This is just a simple visual aid to help gain a basic understanding of how the Catholic Church views itself in light of revealed Truth about God.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____

YOU CAN'T SPELL CHRISTIAN WITHOUT _____

- 1) That all Christians have way more _____ than _____.
- 2) While we should try and _____ the differences and strive to be ___ big family again, we shouldn't let them keep us _____.
- 3) All Christians believe _____, the _____, _____, loving our _____, and taking care of the _____ and vulnerable are super _____, so Catholics, Orthodox, and Protestants should be willing to _____, and enjoy _____ with one another (this is called _____).

Some differences between Protestants and Catholics:

1. Protestants don't see the _____ as God's #1 leader on earth.
2. Most Protestants don't believe Jesus is fully (body, blood, soul, and divinity) present in the _____.
3. Most Protestants don't ask Mary or any other saints to _____ for them.
4. Most Protestants don't believe in _____ (the process of being completely cleaned of one's own sins before entering Heaven).
5. Protestants believe in _____, which translated means "only by scripture" and in practice means, "The _____ is the only thing a Christian needs in order to know the Christian faith".
6. A Sunday morning Protestant church service isn't called a Mass (it's usually called "_____") or a "_____").
7. A Protestant worship service isn't structured like a Mass either (specific Bible readings the first half, Holy Communion the second half). The main focus of a Protestant service is usually a lengthy _____ or message (called a "homily" by Catholics) given by a _____ that is based on a portion of the _____ that they chose to speak about. Before and after the sermon there is usually some _____ and _____ music and occasionally some form of _____.

"There are not a hundred people in America who hate the Catholic Church. There are millions of people who hate what they wrongly believe to be the Catholic Church - which is, of course, quite a different thing"
Archbishop Fulton Sheen

How did the belief in sola scriptura lead to the creation of thousands of different Protestant denominations with differing beliefs?

As Paul Blart says: "_____."

The Bible contains over _____ verses. If each verse can be interpreted differently and every person in the world interprets the Bible however they want to, than there could technically end up being as many Christian _____ in the world as there are _____.

To prevent the chaos caused by sola scriptura, God gave us the _____ (the pope and the bishops). These appointed leaders, guided by the _____, help correctly _____ the Bible according to the intentions of the original author (_____).

