Partner and Group Work

1. Move chairs
2. Be at the same level
3. Greet one another
4. One person talks, others listen.
5. Share (don't just read)
6. Stay on topic
7. Stay in YOUR group
8. If you finish sharing, review what you shared!

Expectations
1. Move chairs

Turn and move chairs so you are close and facing your partner(s).
2. Be at the same level

Everyone in chairs, sitting on the floor, etc.
3. Greet one another

Say “Hi NAME!” at the very least.
(Additional high five or knucks strongly encouraged)
4. One person talks. Others listen.

Speak up. Use eye contact. Listen attentively.
5. Share (don’t just read)

No one wants to watch you read. Summarize your answer in your head, then speak it (not read it).
6. Stay on topic

Talk about what you’re supposed to be talking about.

Look at Mr. Aitchison’s tie today. Isn’t it ugly?!?

Oh wow, it’s HIDEOUS! What was he thinking???
7. Stay in your group

Don’t talk to or distract anyone not in your group.
8. If you finish sharing, review what you shared!

Alright, let me quiz you on what I said.

Bring it on, girl!

You should be able to tell the class what your partner(s) said during your time sharing.
